Installation of OAPABA member Trung Tu as NAPABA Northwest Regional Governor

OAPABA Member Trung Tu was officially inducted as NAPABA Northwest Regional Governor at the NAPABA National Convention in Washington, D.C., during the Saturday night Gala Installation Banquet on November 17, 2012. Associate Justice Sabrina McKenna of the Hawaii Supreme Court performed the swearing-in ceremony. Trung is a partner at McEwen Gisvold LLP where he specializes in business litigation, legal malpractice defense and employment law.

As the NAPABA Northwest Regional Governor, Trung will sit on the NAPABA Board of Governors for a two-year term. The NAPABA Board of Governors is comprised of the Executive Committee, which consists of nine elected Officers, ten Regional Governors, who represent the nine NAPABA regions across the United States, and four At-Large Members. The Northwest Region encompasses Oregon, Washington, and Hawaii.

Over 1,800 APA attorneys, judges, and law students from across the Nation gathered at the 2012 NAPABA Convention, "Reaching Monumental Heights." OAPABA was well-represented at the convention and was proud to celebrate the appointment of Trung Tu as regional governor of the Northwest Region for NAPABA. OAPABA was also proud to celebrate the appointment of Tucker Kraght as regional director of Oregon for NAPALSA, the student chapter of NAPABA. Tucker is a first year law student at the Willamette University College of Law. Congratulations Trung and Tucker!
